What do journalists do?

Journalists do.....many..... different things at work. Here is an idea of some of the things journalists do. Before they (1) ..... write anything, journalists go and meet people and ask lots of questions (2) ..... they need to find out information before they write their stories. Journalists will sometimes pay to have good Wi-Fi so that they know they can send information back to newspaper offices (3) .....News stories are usually quite short and give the (4) .....important information about things that (5).....just happened. Journalist often work with photographers (6) .....take pictures which help to tell the stories.

When they write their stories, journalist use different computer programs to make sure that there aren't (7) .....mistakes in their work. They must be sure that (8) .....is correct before the stories go into newspapers. It isn't easy to be a journalist but it's (9) ..... boring! It's a job with lots of different surprises every day. (10) .....you interested in this work?
