

FAMOUS FIGURE

COMPETENCIA: LEE DIVERSOS TIPOS DE TEXTO EN INGLÉS COMO LENGUA EXTRANJERA

PROPOSITO DE LA SESIÓN: En esta sesión, leeremos un texto sobre personajes históricos e importantes en la independencia del Perú, identifica verbos en el texto, responde a las interrogantes y preparan y organizan una presentación de la vida de los personajes.

01

Historical figures

A

María Parado de Bellido

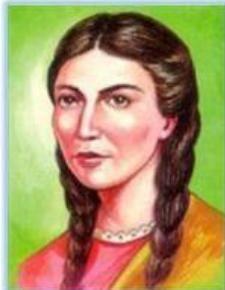

María Parado de Bellido was born in 1777 in Huamanga, Peru. She played a crucial role in Peru's fight for independence from Spanish rule. María actively participated in battles, showing bravery and determination to free her country.

María's contribution to the independence movement was significant. She organized rebel groups and led them in fighting against the Spanish conquerors. Her leadership and courage inspired many others to join the cause for freedom.

Sadly, María Parado de Bellido was captured by the Spanish army. She was accused of being a rebel and sentenced to death. María faced her execution with bravery and remained committed to the cause of independence until the end.

Her sacrifice and determination continue to inspire people in Peru.

María Parado de Bellido is remembered as a hero who fought for the freedom and independence of her beloved country.

1. Questions:

When and where was María Parado de Bellido born?

What was María's contribution to Peru's fight for independence?

How did María inspire others to join the cause?

Why was María sentenced to death?

How is María Parado de Bellido remembered in Peru today?

2. Read and find Verbs in the text

B

Andrés Avelino Cáceres

Andrés Avelino Cáceres was born on November 10, 1836, in Ayacucho, Peru. He is known for his significant contribution to Peru's fight for independence and his role as a military leader.

Cáceres played a crucial role in defending Peru against foreign invasions and internal conflicts. He led the Peruvian army during the War of the Pacific, where he fought against Chilean forces and defended the country's sovereignty.

Cáceres became a national hero due to his strategic military tactics and his determination to protect Peru's territory. He was admired for his leadership skills and bravery on the battlefield.

Unfortunately, Andrés Avelino Cáceres faced tragedy in his personal life. His wife and children were killed during the war, which deeply affected him. Despite the hardships he endured, he continued to fight for the independence and well-being of his country.

Andrés Avelino Cáceres died on October 10, 1923, in Lima, Peru, at the age of 86. His legacy as a brave military leader and patriot lives on in the hearts of the Peruvian people.

1. Questions:

When and where was Andrés Avelino Cáceres born?

What was Cáceres' contribution to Peru's fight for independence?

What role did Cáceres play during the War of the Pacific?

How did the personal tragedy affect Cáceres?

Where and when did Andrés Avelino Cáceres pass away?

2. Read and find Verbs in the text

