

SPANISH CIVIL WAR

1. Match the terms with their definitions.

TERMS		DEFINITIONS
Rebel		Limiting the use or amount of food and products
Refugee		A person who fights against a government or authority
Rationing		A sudden illegal change of government by a group or army
Coup d'état		Someone who flees their country to escape danger or war.

2. Complete the sentences.

Use the words:

Franco - republicans - 1936 - exile - rationing - two

- The Spanish Civil War started in _____.
- General _____ led a military coup d'état.
- Spain was divided into _____ zones.
- The _____ defended democracy.
- Many people went into _____ during the war.
- Food _____ was introduced due to shortages.

3. Choose the correct option (multiple choice)

- What started the Spanish Civil War?

- a) A foreign invasion.
- b) A workers' strike.
- c) A military coup led by Franco.
- d) A protest against taxes.

- Why did many people flee the country?

- a) Because of fear of the winning side.
- b) To find better jobs.
- c) To avoid joining the army.
- d) Because of natural disasters.

- What does the painting Guernica represent?

- a) A happy celebration.
- b) The destruction of a city during the war.
- c) Picasso's dreams.
- d) A landscape in France.

4. Order the timeline.

Write numbers next to each event to put them in the correct order.

- February 1936: Frente popular wins elections. _____
- July 1936: Franco begins the military coup. _____
- April 1939: War ends with the defeat of republicans. _____
- Many people flee to France as refugees. _____