

Unit 3: You are Invited! But, What Will You Wear?

PRACTICES 3

Practice 1: Listening – Understanding Invitations

Play this audio!

1. What is the event?
2. When is the party?
3. Where is it held?
4. What is the dress code?

Practice 2

Match the spoken invitation to the correct card and guess what clothes they would wear to the event.

Play this audio!

Event title or purpose	<input type="text"/>
Date and Time	<input type="text"/>
Place	<input type="text"/>
Parent's Name	<input type="text"/>
RSVP (respond if coming)	<input type="text"/>
Cost	<input type="text"/>

Practice 3: Speaking – Role-Play "You're Invited!"

Students work in pairs. One plays the host, the other plays the guest.

Sample Dialogue Starter:

Student A: "Hi! I'm inviting you to my school music show this Friday at 3 PM. It's a formal event, so please wear your school uniform."

Student B: "Thanks! I'd love to come. Where is the event?"

Student A: "At the school hall. See you there!"

Student B: "See you!"

Switch roles and practice different scenarios (birthday, contest, family dinner, etc.)