

Are the nouns countable or uncountable?
Write C or U.

1 egg

2 onion

3 potato

4 milk

5 juice

6 carrot

7 tomato

8 lemon

9 olive oil

10 sugar

11 bread

12 cereal

13 cake

14 tea

15 apple

16 rice

Complete the sentences below with a, an or words from Exercise 5.

- 1 We need an egg for this recipe.
- 2 Please remember to get three cartons of milk at the shop.
- 3 I am going to put _____ carrot in the salad.
- 4 I have an extra _____ of olive oil. You can have it.
- 5 Do you know the saying " _____ apple a day keeps the doctor away"?
- 6 We will need a _____ of bread for the sandwiches.
- 7 It's hot, so take a _____ of water with you.
- 8 Let's add _____ potato to the soup.

Complete the sentences with much or many.

- 1 There aren't many apples left.
- 2 Don't eat too _____ chocolate.
- 3 A: How _____ is this?
B: It's $15.
- 4 How _____ bananas do we need for this recipe?
- 5 New York has _____ beautiful buildings.
- 6 They visited _____ cities in South America.
- 7 He doesn't have _____ patience.
- 8 A: Do you like football?
B: Yes, very _____.

Circle the correct options.

- 1 Can you buy some / any bananas while you are out, please?
- 2 Do we have some / any tea?
- 3 We have some / any coffee, but there isn't some / any tea.
- 4 Is there some / any sugar for the coffee?
- 5 There isn't some / any sugar, but we have some / any milk.
- 6 There's some / any pilaf in the fridge for you.
- 7 There isn't some / any salad though.
- 8 Can we have some / any dressing for this, please?