

The Meaningful Celebration of Qurban

The Qurban celebration, also known as Eid al-Adha, (1) celebrate by Muslims all over the world. It (2) mark the willingness of Prophet Ibrahim to sacrifice his son as an act of obedience to God. Muslims (3) gather with their families and communities to perform prayers and take part in the sacrifice of animals such as cows, goats, or sheep.

Last year, my family and I (4) goes to the mosque early in the morning. We (5) see many people gathered there for the special prayers. After that, we (6) help to prepare for the Qurban ritual.

We (7) divides the meat into three parts — one for our family, one for relatives and friends, and one for the poor. My cousins and I (8) carry the meat to the nearby houses. It felt good to share with others.

My grandmother (9) cooks delicious dishes using the fresh meat. We (10) eats together as a family and shared stories throughout the day. It was truly a meaningful and joyful celebration..
