End of term party!

This year at school we had an end of term party. We hadn't had a party before. Every class had a job to do. My class had to bring the food and drinks. I made a fruit cake and a carrot cake. They were very tasty. My best friend, Sarah, made a mushroom and spinach pizza and some egg sandwiches. I took some salt and pepper and some sugar.

On the day, we were very excited. We listened to CDs and we had some competitions. I came second in the karaoke competition! Julia, who is in the class above mine, came first.

After singing we had some food. We ate and ate. There was a lot of food. There wasn't much fruit! The food was really unhealthy... but it was nice.

Then we danced. It was an excellent day. Everyone was so helpful and everyone really had a lot of fun. But the next day... oh, what a mess!

Maria's blog

Hi. I'm Maria. I live in New York and I'm American. My cousin is here at the moment. He's from Ireland. His name is Sean. That's an Irish name. They don't say Seeyan, they say Shawn. Some people in Ireland speak Irish. It's very different from English. Sean is going to school with me. He's going to sit next to me in class and he's going to be in all my classes. It's so exciting.

Last night, we watched DVDs until midnight! It was Friday and mom and dad said it was ok. They made us a pizza and gave us some juice and then they went to bed at 10:30 p.m. This morning we were very tired. We had breakfast at 11 a.m! Then we played chess in the dining room. Dad taught me how to play last year – it was difficult to understand at first but now it's easy, and Sean can play, too. My uncle taught him. After lunch, we went shopping. I got some sneakers. They were $20. That's cheap! Sean got a wallet that cost $30. That's expensive! I hope he doesn't forget his wallet because tomorrow we're going to the movie theater! Well... I should get ready. I have a soccer game at five o'clock and it's four-thirty now!
