Read the definitions carefully. Then, drag the correct word from the box next to each definition (a-g). Each number can be used only once.

Newsreader	Rolling News	Reports	Eyewitness	Breaking News
Journal	Press	Cover	Verity	Headline

a. _____: a short title at the top of an article or story that summarizes the main point.

b. _____: a person who presents the news on television or radio.

c. _____: continuous news broadcast that updates regularly with the latest information.

d. _____: a person who sees an event happen and can describe it.

e. _____: important news that is reported as soon as it happens.

f. _____: a written record or diary of events or personal thoughts.

g. _____: printed newspapers and magazines, or the people who produce them.

h. _____: to provide protection or to report on an event for the media.

i. _____: descriptions of events that have happened, written or spoken by journalists.

j. _____: to check that information is true or correct.

LIVEWORKSHEETS