4. It was an unbelievable experience – the scenery so white and yet there were varieties of white I had never seen before. The giant icebergs we sailed past were almost close enough to touch; the penguins and seals ignored our presence and continued their usual business. And in the far distance I caught sight of a whale. Amazing!

5. Inside the diving cage my knees began to shake. Then, as if out of nowhere, the great white shark appeared. Brought by the smell of the sardines, it circled near me, its razor-sharp teeth just centimetres away. Its powerful body shook the boat before it descended back into the depths of the ocean.

6. Can you imagine going on a journey and not knowing where you are going to go? Perhaps you would like to take a risk or leave the decision to someone/something else? Then all you need is a dice. 2. Read the text. Put its parts in a logical order.

8. A. All other days of my holiday were wonderful too. We had short and long trips to different places in the mountains and in the city. We went to the shops, visited the US Bank Tower which is 310 metres high (one of the tallest buildings in the world). We drove to Santa Barbara and spent six days there. It's a beautiful place on the beach 50 kilometres from Los Angeles. I swam a lot there. My two weeks in America were just wonderful and passed like two days.

9. B. On Christmas Day the weather was fine. It was warm and sunny. After breakfast we drove to church. We had a traditional dinner of turkey and vegetables at four in the afternoon and then we opened our gifts. I got a book about Los Angeles as a Christmas present.

10. C. Last Christmas I went to Hollywood for two weeks. My best friend Laura was living there in the southwest of the USA. I travelled by plane to Los Angeles. Thirteen hours later I was in that famous city. Laura met me at the airport. We hugged and kissed each other and then drove to Hollywood in her car. We arrived home at midnight. The clock was just striking twelve.

11. D. The next day was Christmas Eve. In the morning Laura took me to Disneyland, which is not very far from Los Angeles. I didn't think I could like the place but I enjoyed it very much. When we came back home, we began to decorate the Christmas tree. Soon the room looked very cosy with the Christmas stockings which hang over the fireplace and a small toy Santa with a red sack near it.
