

Put the verbs into the correct form to create mixed conditionals. Use the hints in orange to understand which type of mixed conditionals you need.

1. If he _____ (to be) more adventurous, he _____
(to go) bungee jumping with us.
(But he isn't, so he didn't.)
2. If we _____ (to save) more money, we _____
(to travel) more often these days.
(But we didn't save enough, so we don't travel much.)
3. If you _____ (to learn) to drive earlier, you _____
(to own) a car now.
(But you didn't learn, so you don't own a car.)
4. If she _____ (to be) taller, she _____ (to be) picked for the basketball team.
(But she isn't, so she wasn't.)
5. If they _____ (to invest) in that startup, they _____
(to be) wealthy now.
(But they didn't invest, so they aren't wealthy.)
6. If they _____ (to trust) me, they _____ (to tell) me their secret.
(But they don't, so they didn't.)
7. If he _____ (to know) how to swim, he _____
(to join) us at the beach last weekend.
(But he doesn't, so he didn't.)
8. If I _____ (to finish) university on time, I _____
(to have) a stable career now.
(But I didn't finish on time, so I don't.)
9. If you _____ (to be) more responsible, you _____
(to remember) to lock the door.
(But you aren't, so you didn't.)
10. If he _____ (to practice) more, he _____ (to play)
the piano better today.
(But he didn't practice, so he can't play well.)
11. If I _____ (to have) a better camera, I _____
(to take) more photos on our trip.
(But I don't, so I didn't.)
12. If she _____ (to take) the course, she _____
(to understand) this topic better now.
(But she didn't take it, so she doesn't understand well.)
13. If they _____ (to be) more organized, they _____
(not, to miss) the deadline.
(But they aren't, so they did.)
14. If we _____ (to plant) a garden last spring, we
_____ (to have) fresh vegetables now.
(But we didn't plant, so we don't have any.)

15. If you _____ (to be) more patient, you _____ (not, to lose) your temper yesterday.
(But you aren't, so you did.)
16. If she _____ (to move) to another city, she _____ (to have) different friends now.
(But she didn't move, so her friends are the same.)
17. If you _____ (not, to be) afraid of heights, you _____ (to try) skydiving with us.
(But you are, so you didn't.)
18. If he _____ (to be) a bit more careful, he _____ (not, to make) so many mistakes in the report.
(But he isn't, so he did.)
19. If I _____ (to take) better care of my health, I _____ (to feel) stronger now.
(But I didn't, so I feel weak.)
20. If they _____ (to fix) the roof last year, it _____ (not, to leak) now.
(But they didn't fix it, so it leaks.)