

Order the sentences to create a paragraph.-Making a Good First Impression

We also have to be considerate when talking to others.

Buying gifts is very helpful.

Making a good impression is important.

Do not interrupt or say offensive things.

It is important to learn about the culture of others, so we make a good impression when we meet them.

It shows that you are thoughtful and kind. Making a good impression is so important.

There are many ways to achieve this.

You should maintain eye contact, so it looks like you are interested in what the speaker is saying.

Wearing clean and respectable clothes can help make a good impression.

A large rounded rectangular box containing ten horizontal yellow bars, intended for writing the ordered sentences to form a paragraph.