Fill in the blanks with the missing word(s) to complete the idiom:

The kids are making so much noise – they're driving me up the _____!

That boring documentary nearly sent me round the _____.

I didn't mean to rub her up the wrong _____, I just asked a simple question!

Every time he talks about politics, it really puts my _____ up.

Be careful what you say to her – you might ruffle her _____.

His announcement really set the cat among the _____.

They haven't been on _____ terms since the argument last year.

My boss gave me an _____ when I showed up late for the third time.

If I catch those boys in my garden again, I'll give them a piece of my _____!

I'm fed up to the back _____ with working overtime for no extra pay.

I'm at my wits' _____ with this broken computer – nothing works!

I've had it up to _____ with your constant complaining.

The teacher will throw a _____ when she finds out you cheated on the test.

If someone's blood is _____, it's best to leave them alone.

She's out for _____ – she won't stop until she gets revenge.

LIVEWORKSHEETS