

Socialising

1. Join the names of the events with the correct meaning

A reception

is a visit to another person's home to spend a night there.

A graduation party

is a meeting where people discuss or work on a particular subject.

A workshop

is a formal party to celebrate an important event.

A sleepover

is a celebration of a student's completion of a course of study at school, college, or university.

A festival

is an organized series of concerts, films, and other events held annually in the same place.

2. Complete the sentences with the words from the previous exercise

1. The bride asked me to give a speech at the .

sleepover

2. He showed his diploma to us at the .

graduation party

3. She organized a for gardeners to discuss different methods of planting roses.

festival

4. More than a thousand people showed up at the local indie music .

workshop

wedding reception

5. The girls decided to organize a watch their favourite movies.

3. Complete the sentences with the given words

1. His in the conversation made everyone feel awkward.

mingle

2. Carrie wanted to in the conversation and make everyone feel comfortable.

put yourself

3. Despite living too far from each other, they were a friend group.

drop by

slip-up

4. The teacher asked us to on younger students.

asked me over

5. You sometimes need to in the person's shoes to understand them.

keep an eye

6. This part is your chance to get to know new people and .

tell the difference

7. We feel we overstayed our since our host is constantly looking at the clock.

break the ice

8. That's sad that you can't between being polite and someone who's really interested in your stories

welcome

9. He to discuss our future project.

close-knit

10. He decided to her sister's house on his way to work.