

Smartphones – complete the missing words

Advantages:

You can easily _____ with your family members, friends, coworkers, etc.

You can _____ photos.

You can listen to music, play games.

You can use navigation or check the Google maps and don't get _____.

You can check your e-mail or check your profile in _____ networks.

You can search for some information any _____ you like.

You can use it as a flashlight or _____ clock.

You can use it as an e-book reader.

You can _____ some online shopping or pay the bills.

Disadvantages

You can easily get _____ to it; when we don't have it or the _____ runs out we may feel completely helpless and lost.

A smart phone can consume your entire _____ and nothing really productive will be done.

Using a phone while _____ can lead to some serious accidents.

Looking constantly at the _____ surely doesn't benefit your eyes.

Using a smart phone before you go to _____ will keep you awake and you will find it difficult to _____ asleep.

Using a smart phone while studying will _____ you.

Hackers can break into your account and _____ some data.

Your location can be traced and burglars can use that information to break _____ your house.

The costs of using a phone can be pretty steep.

Smart phones can hinder some real _____;

It seems we don't spend any quality time with the loved ones any more

