Learning the Alphabet with Leo

Leo is a little boy who is learning the alphabet. Every morning, he sings the alphabet song with his teacher and classmates.

"A, B, C, D, E, F, G..." they sing happily. Leo loves singing it out loud.

At home, Leo has an alphabet chart on his wall. It shows each letter with a picture. A is for apple. B is for banana. C is for cat. D is for dog. Leo points to the letters and says the names.

He plays a game with his sister. She says a word, and he guesses the first letter.

When she says "fish," Leo says, "F!"

Leo knows that there are 26 letters in the English alphabet. He wants to learn how to write all the letters, both big and small.

Leo says, "Letters help me read and write. I want to be really good at them!"
