

The Story of Coca-Cola

The Coca-Cola company started 138 years ago as a small, insignificant one man business. Since then, it has grown into one of the largest companies in the world. The first chairman of the company was Dr. John Pemberton. The demand for this product has made this company into a 50 billion dollar business. Coca-Cola was invented by Dr. John Pemberton, an Atlanta pharmacist. He invented the formula in his backyard on May 8, 1886 by mixing lime, cinnamon, coca leaves, and the seeds of a Brazilian shrub. Coca-Cola, as he called the beverage, made its debut in Atlanta's largest pharmacy, Jacob's Pharmacy, as a five cent non-carbonated drink. Later on, the carbonated water was added to the syrup to make the beverage that we know today. Coca-Cola was originally used as a nerve and brain tonic and a medical elixir. Dr. John Pemberton sold a portion of the Coca-Cola company to Asa Candler. He was forced to sell because he was in a state of poor health and was in debt. He had paid $76.96 for advertising, but he only made $50.00 in profits. In time, Candler acquired the whole company for $2,300 (Coca-Cola Multiple Pages). Candler achieved a lot during his time as owner of the company. On January 31, 1893, the famous Coca-Cola formula was patented. He also opened the first syrup manufacturing plant in 1884.

Candler aggressively advertised Coca-Cola in newspapers and on billboards. Currently Coca-Cola is advertised on over five hundred TV channels around the world. In 1931, he introduced the Coke Santa as a Christmas promotion and it caught on. The best known trademark in the world is sold in about one hundred and forty countries to 5.8 billion people in eighty different languages. For more than 85 years, Coca-Cola has been a sponsor of the
