

Homework

Exercise 1: Complete the Paragraph Using Participle Clauses

Instructions: Use the verbs in parentheses to rewrite each part of the paragraph using participle clauses. Use present, past, or perfect participles as needed.

(1) (wake up) _____ late and (2) (know)

_____ she had a big meeting, Carla rushed to get ready.

(3) (skip) _____ breakfast, she grabbed her bag and headed out.

(4) (bombard) _____ by choices at the coffee shop, she left empty-handed.

(5) (have not prepare) _____ her notes, she felt anxious during the meeting.

(6) (feel) _____ disappointed with her performance, she decided to plan better next time.

Exercise 2: Vocabulary in Context – Multiple Choice

Instructions: Choose the best word or phrase to complete each sentence. Use vocabulary from the lesson text.

1. The number of university programs was so _____ that I didn't know where to begin.
a) anecdotal b) daunting c) overwhelmed
2. I was completely _____ emails and notifications after my post went viral.
a) bursting with b) bombarded with c) trusted with
3. _____, the more time I had to choose a gift, the harder it became.
a) FOMO b) Ironically c) Anecdotal
4. His advice wasn't scientific — it was just _____, based on his own experience.
a) antidote b) anecdotal c) daunting
5. I felt totally _____ after seeing five different job offers, unable to make a move.
a) stuck in limbo b) bursting with options c) having regret

6. People often say the best way to decide is to _____ and not overthink it.
- a) fear missing out b) get bombarded c) trust your instincts
7. Too many choices can cause decision _____, making people feel frozen.
- a) paralysis b) antidote c) burst
8. The new yoga routine is the perfect _____ to my daily stress.
- a) FOMO b) anecdote c) antidote
9. The travel website was _____ destinations and deals, but it was hard to pick one.
- a) bursting with options b) stuck in limbo c) paralyzed
10. I didn't want to miss the party even though I was tired — Classic case of _____.
- a) irony b) FOMO c) trust