

LITERARY GENRES PRACTICE

Match the columns. Write the corresponding letter on the line.

___	Theatrical performance where conflict and emotions are expressed through dialogue and actors.	a. Fiction
___	Verse and rhythmic with imagery that creates emotional responses.	b. Horror
___	Content produced by imagination, story made up or not real.	c. Suspense
___	Induces a state of anticipation and uncertainty and tension. The reader feels nervous and excited.	d. Tragedy
___	Serious style with terrible events, often ends sadly and sometimes includes death.	e. Drama
___	Fiction which invites suspension of reality and includes magical or imaginary worlds.	f. Fantasy
___	Its goal is to make an audience laugh.	g. Novel
___	Fiction in which events evoke a feeling of dread, it is meant to scare or frighten the reader.	h. Comedy
___	Long story and invented prose narrative, normally in a book.	i. Poetry

LIVEWORKSHEETS