1. Have you ever seen these signs? Do you know what they mean?

These signs are the certified cruelty-free bunny logos. Cruelty-free is a label for products or activities that do not harm or kill animals anywhere in the world. Companies that use these logos must meet a set of cruelty-free standards, sign legal documents, and submit proof of documentation to ensure compliance.

3. Have you heard about the organization called Humane Society International?

HUMANE SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

Humane Society International works around the globe to promote the human-animal bond, rescue and protect dogs and cats, improve farm animal welfare, protect wildlife, promote animal-free testing and research, respond to natural disasters and confront cruelty to animals in all of its forms.

The organization argues that animal testing for cosmetics is an ugly business. Around the world, many thousands of animals such as rabbits, guinea pigs and mice suffer needlessly to test products like lipstick and shampoo, even though producing cruelty-free beauty products is safe and simple.
