

English Practice: Asking for and Giving Directions

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks

Watch the video and choose the correct phrase to complete each sentence:

1. Excuse me, _____ to the library?
 - a) could you tell me how to get
 - b) can you show me where
 - c) will you help me get

2. Go straight, then _____ at the traffic lights.
 - a) go past
 - b) turn right
 - c) cross

3. The bookstore is _____ the cinema.
 - a) next to
 - b) across from
 - c) between

4. If you reach the pharmacy, you've gone _____.
 - a) the wrong way
 - b) across
 - c) right

5. _____ does it take to walk from here to the post office?
 - a) What time
 - b) How long
 - c) When

Exercise 3: Choose the right phrase

1. If you already passed the bank and need the cinema, you:
 - a) turn left
 - b) you're going the wrong way
 - c) continue straight

2. If the route starts at the school and you must walk through the park, you say:
 - a) cross the roundabout
 - b) go through the park
 - c) turn right

3. Mom asks: "_____ to get to the swimming pool?"
 - a) What time does it take
 - b) How long does it take
 - c) When does it take

Exercise 4: Role-play

Imagine a tourist is asking a local for directions to the zoo. Write a short dialogue (4-6 lines).

English Practice: Asking for and Giving Directions

Example:

Tourist: Excuse me, how do I get to the zoo?

Local: Sure, go straight and turn right at the lights. Then cross the street. It's next to the museum.

Use phrases like:

- turn left/right
- go straight
- cross the street
- next to
- opposite
- how long does it take