Vocabulary 1 education

1 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1 My friend has finished university and has a course / degree in economy / economics.
2 I'd like to do a yoga course, but there aren't any good instructors / pupils nearby.
3 I'm writing an essay / a research on new technology in schools.
4 I've paid a grant / deposit for the course and have to pay the rest next week.
5 I find research / physics quite difficult and it's not my favourite school subject.
6 The exam was difficult and very few teachers / pupils passed.
7 This course is suitable for beginner / intermediate students with at least two years' experience.
8 My handwriting / application is bad, but I can write everything on a keyboard these days.

2 Complete the sentences with these words.

beginner certificate diploma fees
IT mark subjects

1 I'm good with computers, so I'd like to study _____ at college.
2 I'm a _____ . I don't know anything about this sport.
3 I did a course in car mechanics and got a _____ at the end of it. The _____ is on my wall.
4 I'd like to study there, but the _____ are too high for me.
5 In the UK, students choose three or four _____ to study when they are 16.
6 I worked really hard on that essay, but my teacher still gave me a low _____ .

3 Complete the text with these words.

accent behaves clever examiner failed passes subject

My brother is very [1] _____ and has always learned things very quickly. But he's also quite a difficult student and often [2] _____ badly in class. He studies as little as possible and it's amazing that he always [3] _____ his exams first time. I think he's only [4] _____ one in all his life and that was because he didn't like the [5] _____ . He wants to study French at college or university, so he'll need a good mark. I just hope the [6] _____ in the speaking test can understand his [7] _____ !

LIVEWORKSHEETS