

Poetry and Identity Questionnaire

Part 1: Multiple Choice Questions (Choose the best answer)

1. What is poetry?
  - a) A song with melody
  - b) A story with a happy ending
  - c) A type of writing that uses words to express feelings, ideas, or stories
  - d) A way to learn new vocabulary
2. What is the main purpose of imagery in poetry?
  - a) To create rhymes
  - b) To entertain the reader
  - c) To teach grammar
  - d) To create vivid pictures in the reader's mind
3. Which word means "words that sound alike"?
  - a) Imagery
  - b) Rhythm
  - c) Rhyme
  - d) Stanza
4. Which of the following books teaches the importance of being kind?
  - a) The Gruffalo
  - b) Lost and Found
  - c) Each Kindness
  - d) Moo Ba La La
5. Who is the author of "The Gruffalo"?
  - a) Dr. Seuss
  - b) Julia Donaldson
  - c) Jacqueline Woodson
  - d) Oliver Jeffers

Part 2: Fill in the blanks

6. The beat of a poem is called _____.
7. A _____ is a comparison using 'like' or 'as'.

Poetry and Identity Questionnaire

8. A _____ is a direct comparison without using 'like' or 'as'.
9. One example of a sensory detail is: " _____."
10. Cultural connections show how our _____ and _____ shape our identity.

Part 3A: Match with a line - Characteristics of Poetry

11. Expressive language
12. Imagery
13. Sensory details
14. Rhyme
15. Rhythm
- A. Words that show feelings and emotions
- B. Words that sound alike
- C. The beat of a poem
- D. Vivid pictures in your mind
- E. Sight, sound, smell, taste, touch

Part 3B: Match with a line - Book Lessons

16. The Sneetches
17. I Like Myself
18. Last Stop on Market Street
19. Here We Are
20. Lost and Found
- A. Take care of the Earth
- B. Don't compare yourself to others
- C. Appreciate the things you have
- D. To love yourself as you are
- E. A friendship between a penguin and a boy

