Match the following common types of businesses related to commercial activities, grouped into broad categories, with their definitions:

 1. Retail Businesses: businesses that sell goods directly to consumers..

- Supermarkets – _____
- Clothing shops – _____
- Department stores – _____
- Convenience stores – _____
- E-commerce businesses – _____

Small local shops selling everyday items.

Sell fashion and accessories to the public.

Sell goods online through websites or apps.

Large shops selling food and household items.

Large stores offering a variety of products under one roof.

2. Wholesale Businesses: Businesses that sell goods in bulk to retailers or other businesses.

- Distributors – _____
- Cash and carry – _____
- Import/export companies – _____

Sell goods in large quantities at discounted prices, usually for trade use.

Buy and sell goods across international borders.

Supply products from manufacturers to retailers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

💼 3. Service Providers: Offer professional or commercial services rather than physical products.

- Marketing agencies – _____
- Accountancy firms – _____
- IT support services – _____
- Cleaning services – _____

Provide financial and tax services to businesses.

Provide cleaning for offices, shops, and other commercial spaces.

Help businesses promote and sell their products or services.

Offer technical help and digital solutions.

🍽️ 5. Hospitality and Food Services

Offer food, drink, or accommodation, often linked to tourism and customer experience.

- Restaurants and cafés – _____
- Catering services – _____
- Hotels and hostels – _____
- Bars and pubs – _____

Offer accommodation for travellers and tourists.

Provide food for events or businesses.

Serve alcoholic drinks, often with food or entertainment.

Serve meals and drinks to customers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS