

TASK 15 (NOUNS)

- 1) It's a (discover) that may hold the key to our (understand) of the universe.
- 2) Betty just love being the center of (attentive).
- 3) Political (history) are often ignorant of economics.
- 4) I'd like to become an (architectural).
- 5) The (propose) met with a hail of (critic).
- 6) My friend's (die) forced me to face the fact of my own (mortal).
- 7) I didn't know whether to interpret her (silent) as (accept) or (refuse).
- 8) His ideas have won widespread public (approve).
- 9) The school is in need of new computer (equip).
- 10) She is looking for a personal (assist) with good organizational skills.
- 11) The Global Communications Group links ecological and political (activity) via the Net.
- 12) There were food (short) and other (deprive) during the Civil War.
- 13) I have quite a good (relative) with my parents.
- 14) The room was in total (dark).
- 15) The main problem about drawing up a will is that it means accepting the (inevitable) of death.
- 16) Against all (expect), there's been a big (improve) in the situation.
- 17) He finally apologized but with a great deal of (reluctant).
- 18) The country's political (divide) are deep-rooted.
- 19) The solemnity of his words made a deep (impress) on the (belief).
- 20) I would like to express my sincere (grateful) for your care.
- 21) (bore) is the enemy of learning.
- 22) He was a Catholic by (bring up).
- 23) The (warm) of her smile made him happy at once.
- 24) Rina is a frequent (visit) to the city.
- 25) Any increase in the cost of transporting (good) will be passed on to the (custom).