My name is Emily. I'm ten years old. At our school, we care about the environment. In our classroom, there's a box. It isn't for trash. We put old books, paper, and empty cartons in it. Then we recycle them. Sometimes we reuse things from the box in our art lesson. We make pictures and boxes for our pencils.

At the library in our town, there's a big, green, recycle box. You can donate clean clothes and shoes. There were a lot of old clothes in my closet last week. I went to the library and put my old clothes in the recycle box! We recycle toys at school, too. I have some old toys at home. I want to bring them to school and give them to my friends.
