

McDonald's Partners with US Embassy in Austria

Fast-food giant McDonald's has with the US Embassy in Austria to offer limited consular . Any American citizen who needs help from the US Embassy in Austria can now visit any of its McDonald's restaurants. While the McDonald's cannot offer services such as issuing a , it will put Americans in direct contact with the Embassy to report a concern such as a lost passport. McDonald's says it is not any payment for offering this service in Austria.