

McDonald's Partners with US Embassy in Austria

Fast-food giant McDonald's has [redacted] with the US Embassy in Austria to offer limited consular [redacted]. Any American citizen who needs help from the US Embassy in Austria can now visit any of its [redacted] McDonald's restaurants. While the McDonald's cannot offer services such as issuing a [redacted], it will put Americans in direct contact with the Embassy to report a concern such as a lost passport. McDonald's says it is not [redacted] any payment for offering this service in Austria.