Here's a short dialogue using "there is / there are" and their negative and interrogative forms, with the target vocabulary. Work in pairs and practice the dialogue.

INSTRUCTIONS

Scene: Two friends, Ana and Luis, are checking a new bathroom in a hotel room.

Ana: Wow, this bathroom looks clean!

Luis: Yes, it does. There is a big mirror above the sink.

Ana: And there is a soap dispenser next to the faucet. That's convenient.

Luis: There are two bath towels and a hand towel on the towel rack. Perfect for both of us.

Ana: Hmm... Is there a hair dryer?

Luis: Let me check... No, there isn't a hair dryer here.

Ana: That's okay. Oh! There is a small wastebasket next to the toilet.

Luis: Wait... Are there any toothbrushes or a toothbrush holder?

Ana: No, there aren't any. I guess we have to use our own.

Luis: Is there a shower curtain?

Ana: Yes, there is. And there is a rubber mat too, so we don't slip.

Luis: Great. But... there isn't a scale. I wanted to weigh my luggage.

Ana: Haha, don't worry. At least there is a nice bathtub if you want to relax.

PRODUCTION
