Listen to the dialogue again. Fill in the blanks.

Interviewer: Thanks for joining us today. Can you share some advice on how to stay safe at home?

Safety Officer: Sure! If you lock your doors and _____, it will stop burglars from entering your home. And if you put in a smoke detector, it will _____ you when there's a fire.

Interviewer: That's great advice. How about safety on the road?

Safety Officer: _____ safety is important! If you wear a seatbelt and follow the speed limit, it will help keep everyone _____ on the road.

Interviewer: Finally, what can students do to stay safe at school?

Safety Officer: Well, students and _____ will be prepared for an emergency if the school has regular safety _____, like fire drills.

Interviewer: Thank you. Please stay safe, everyone!

Para las siguientes preguntas, escucha cada audio antes de responder.

A. He loves the new movie, but hates the actors.

B. He hates the new movie, but thinks the acting is terrific.

C. He loves the new movie, but thought the acting could be better.

A. He liked the movie, but didn't really like the costumes.

B. He didn't like the movie, and thought the costumes looked awful.

C. He loved the new movie, but wished the costumes looked better.

A. He thought the movie was fine, but the plot was boring.

B. He loved the Green movie, even though he fell asleep.

C. He fell asleep because he hated the Green Movie.

Fatima: Hey Carl! Did you watch that show on our favourite channel last night? I had nightmares about those nests of spiders!

Carl: Yes, I did! I definitely won't go near one of those. I was watching it in the dark which made it more scary.

Fatima: I'm scared of the dark, I won't even sleep alone at night. Are you scared of anything?

Carl: Oh yes, I'm scared of bees. But I probably won't stop eating honey because of it. I'm also afraid of heights.

Fatima: So I guess you won't be joining me on the Eiffel Tower then? Even if it was built by professional engineers?

Carl: I definitely won't join you there. That's no surprise. Why are you going to Paris?

Fatima: I am meant to go for a public speaking competition. But, I am afraid of flying, so I might not go.

Carl: You can trust the pilot. They are also trained professionals.

1. What animal did the nest belong to?

a. Bees          b. Snakes          c. Spiders

2. Which professional can we trust for flying?

a. Engineer          b. Pilot          c. Artist

3. Fatima was going to Paris for a public speaking…

a. Class          b. Movie          c. Competition

Para las siguientes preguntas, escucha y lee el siguiente diálogo.

Sarah: Hey Tom, I've been thinking about our upcoming trip to Mexico. Should we start planning our itinerary?

Tom: Yeah, that sounds like a good idea. Shall we begin by looking at some sightseeing spots and activities?

Sarah: Definitely. Could we also check the exchange rate for the local currency? It might help us budget better.

Tom: Yes, we should also make reservations for accommodations in advance to avoid any last-minute problems.

Sarah: That's a great suggestion. Shall I also book tickets for any attractions or tours we want to visit?

Tom: I agree, Sarah. We could set some money aside for souvenirs too. It's always nice to bring back something memorable from our travels.

Sarah: Absolutely, Tom! Should we make a list of items to pack? We don't want to forget anything important.

1. Tom and Sarah's upcoming trip is to…

a. Japan          b. Mexico          c. South Africa

2. Why does Sarah want to check the local currency?

a. To help them budget better

b. To learn about the history of the local currency

c. To find out about the weather in Mexico

3. Why does Sarah think it's important to make a list of items to pack?

a. To save money

b. So they can pack less items

c. So they don't forget anything important