

A READING WARM-UP Where do you think people learn the difference between right and wrong? What are the most important lessons children need to learn?