Robert, Harry and the clever dog!

Last summer, Robert and Harry stayed at their grandparents' house by the sea. One hot and sunny morning, Grandmother made a picnic and took the boys to the beach. After lunch, Grandmother lay down and opened her book. The boys played football on the beach and then made a little castle with some sand.

Then Harry saw a strange cave which was near some big, grey rocks at the other end of the beach. The boys quickly ran to it and looked in, but they couldn't see anything because it was very dark. Harry said, 'It looks big inside. Come on! I'll go first.'

Harry and Robert were playing inside the cave when suddenly Robert said, 'Oh no! I can hear the sea! It's coming into the cave.' They were very afraid, but then Harry felt something wet on his hand. It was a dog's nose! The dog was very clever. It showed the boys another way out of the cave and back to the beach.

Vicky and Jack and their exciting presents!

Mrs Green wanted her children, Vicky and Jack, to have good, strong teeth. Every night, she said, 'You must clean your teeth very well. It's important. And you shouldn't eat chocolate or sweets!' But Vicky and Jack didn't like cleaning their teeth. It was boring. And they loved chocolate and sweets!

One day, Mrs Green said, 'Next week, we are going to go and see the dentist. If you have very good teeth, I'll give you both something very nice.' Vicky and Jack were very excited when she said that. They cleaned their teeth very carefully after breakfast, lunch and dinner every day.

'Perhaps she'll give me a new bicycle,' said Vicky to her brother. 'Perhaps I'll have a new kite,' said Jack to his sister. They talked about their presents every night when they went to bed.
