

Travelling by Air

Fill in the gaps with the missing words.

passport	online	screened	security	transit	departure	reclaim
	immigration	reservation	flight	overhead

You can book a plane ticket and pay with your debit card. When your is confirmed, you should print your electronic ticket.

It's advisory to arrive at the airport about 2 hours before, to go through all the procedures.

At the check-in desk you will present your and you will be given your boarding card. Hand baggage is allowed on board with very strict restrictions in size. Big suitcases travel in the hold of the aircraft.

After check-in, you will go to the check-point where you and your luggage will be to detect potential threat objects like knives, scissors or weapons.

Then you go to the hall and wait for your to take off. You board your plane at the indicated gate.

Aboard the plane you put your cabin luggage in the locker above your seat. You have to fasten your seat belt before departure.

On arrival an officer will check your passport and you will get back your luggage at the baggage