My mum enjoys talking about science because she studied it at university. If someone is / will be interested, she shares her knowledge with them because she believes / doesn't believe that one of the main benefits of having knowledge is that you can pass it on to other people. If there is / will be a science programme on TV, she will watch / won't watch it. Last week she was really disappointed because her favourite science TV show wasn't on. If this happens, she reads / will read her science magazine instead. I'm really lucky that my mum is good at science because if I have science homework, she helps / will help me with it. Last week our teacher gave our test results back and I got a good mark. If I have children one day, I share / will share my knowledge with them too.
