

Name: _____

Score: _____

12 Matching questions

the supreme court declares a law the powers of the nation government are distributed among three branches of government the people elect representatives to make laws and conduct government the President is commander in chief of the military state and local government supervise the public school system

Congress cannot make a law that violates freedom of speech the president and all other government officials must obey the law like all American citizens the power to govern comes from the people

Congress can coin money

the senate can refuse to approve a treaty that the president has negotiated the government cannot arrest a person unless that person has violated a law

Amendment 19 gave women the right to vote

A. checks & balance<sup>1-12 of 12</sup>

B. federalism

C. Limited Power of Government

D. Separation of Powers

E. individual rights

F. separation of power

G. limited government

H. Individual Right

I. republicanism

J. popular sovereignty

K. checks & balances

L. Separation of Powers