

- A. The music played extreme loud.
- B. The music played extremely loudly.
- C. The music's loudness was extreme.
- D. It was extremely loud music.

Question 97: It is beneficial for your health to exercise regularly.

- A. Exercising regularly is beneficial for your health.
- B. It is beneficial to your health for exercise regularly.
- C. To exercising regularly is beneficial for your health.
- D. It is beneficial of your health to exercise regularly.

Question 98: He isn't old enough to watch that film.

- A. He is too young to watch that film.
- B. He is old enough for watching that film.
- C. He is so old that he can watch that film.
- D. He is not young enough to watch that film.

Question 99: "I will call you later," she promised.

- A. She promised she will call me later.
- B. She promised she would call me later.
- C. She promised I would call her later.
- D. She promised to calling me later.

Question 100: You will get good grades if you work consistently.

- A. Unless you work consistently, you will get good grades.
- B. If you don't work consistently, you will get good grades.
- C. You will get good grades unless you don't work consistently.
- D. Unless you work consistently, you won't get good grades.

Question 101: She sings more beautifully than her sister.

- A. Her sister doesn't sing as beautifully as she does.
- B. Her sister sings more beautifully than she does.
- C. She doesn't sing as beautifully as her sister.
- D. Her sister sings as beautifully as she does.

Question 102: His answer was perfectly correct.

- A. He answered perfect correct.
- B. He answered perfectly correctly.
- C. His answering was perfectly correctly.
- D. It was a perfectly correct answer.

Question 103: It is challenging to climb this mountain.

- A. Climbing this mountain is challenging.
- B. It is challenging for climb this mountain.
- C. To climbing this mountain is challenging.
- D. It is challenging of climbing this mountain.

Question 104: The shoes are too small for me to wear.

- A. The shoes are not big enough for me to wear.
- B. The shoes are big enough for me to wear.
- C. The shoes are so small that I can wear them.
- D. The shoes are not small enough for me to wear.