WRITING PRACTICE: A DAY THAT CHANGED COMMUNICATION

Practice your Simple Past skills in a fun and meaningful way!

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the correct form of the verbs (Simple Past). Choose from the word bank below. You will also need to use time expressions to complete the story.

WORD BANK

Verbs (base form): visit - learn - invent - communicate - be - see - touch - explain - change - write - have - realize - make

Time expressions: last week - in the past - at the end - in 1876

(1) _____, our class (2) _____ a technology museum. We (3) _____ about Alexander Graham Bell and how he (4) _____ the telephone (5) _____. It was amazing to see how people (6) _____ (7) _____ (8) _____. There (9) _____ a big exhibition with old phones. I (10) _____ a black rotary phone and (11) _____ a real telegraph machine! Our guide also (12) _____ how communication (13) _____ over the years. (14) _____, we (15) _____ a message using Morse code and (16) _____ a lot of fun. I (17) _____ that technology (18) _____ life easier — especially when it comes to talking with people (19) _____ (20) _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS