

ADULTS PROGRAM – NB2D – FINAL EXAM – UNIT 8 – BOOK: NAVIGATE B2

Speaking (20 pts)

A. Think of an art exhibition, musical, play, concert, film or another event you have been to recently. Make a note of what you liked and what you didn't. Then, describe the event, using the Language for speaking box.

LANGUAGE FOR SPEAKING describing your impressions <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Positive impressions It's (just) stunning/magical/breathtaking/fascinating. It's really impressive/inspiring. What I particularly liked/loved was ... + noun/noun clause I like the way ... + verb clause For me the highlight was ... + noun/verb -ing It was well worth ... + verb -ing</li><li>Negative impressions I wasn't that impressed by ... I found it a bit dull/weird/disturbing/disappointing. I didn't see the point of it. It's a bit/much too ... for my liking. It didn't really live up to my expectations.</li></ul>	Sample answer: Last month, I went to a modern art exhibition at the Cultural Center. It was just fascinating! What I particularly loved was the photography section — the photos were so emotional and thought-provoking. I also liked the way the rooms were organized. Each one had a different theme and mood, and the lighting really helped to create an atmosphere. For me, the highlight was an interactive installation where you could actually walk through the artwork. It was really inspiring. But not everything was great. I wasn't that impressed by the video art at the end. It was a bit too weird for my liking and didn't really live up to my expectations. Still, the exhibition was well worth visiting. I'd definitely recommend it to anyone interested in modern or contemporary art.

Reading (20 pts)

J. Read the text about the history of the vacuum cleaner and choose the correct option a–d to complete the sentences.

Until about 250 years ago, households did not take dirt as <sup>1</sup> _____ as they do now. It was a fact of life and that was that. Cleaning often <sup>2</sup> _____ of no more than an annual clean called ‘spring-cleaning’. This was when the furniture was moved aside, and other <sup>3</sup> _____ in the house, such as curtains, were cleaned. Carpets and rugs were taken outside, hung on ropes and had the dust <sup>4</sup> _____ out of them. It was an exhausting and messy process.

The industrial revolution brought about a major change. As new <sup>5</sup> _____ became available to make homes cleaner, a corresponding interest in <sup>6</sup> _____ hygiene developed. This, in turn, led to the <sup>7</sup> _____ of new machines, one of which was the vacuum cleaner.

Legend has it that when one of the first vacuum cleaners was <sup>8</sup> _____, a kindly scientist took the proud inventor aside, offering a bit of advice that was to become crucial to the future of the product – ‘make it suck, not blow’.

The first vacuum cleaners appeared in the US. They were operated by hand pumps and were almost as much hard work as spring-cleaning. It was only when electric motors had become sufficiently <sup>9</sup> _____ to be moved around that vacuum cleaners became common household items. Most of today’s major <sup>10</sup> _____ first appeared in the 1920s, but have had their designs changed slightly through the decades.
