Name: _____ Roll No: _____

Class: M. 6/2

Part 1: Reading Comprehension - The Hardworking Girl

Instructions: Read the passage below carefully and answer the following questions in complete sentences.

Lisa is a very hardworking girl. She wakes up early every day to help her family and then goes to school. Even after coming back home, she doesn't rest. She studies her lessons, does her homework, and helps her mom with cooking. Lisa knows that hard work is important for her dreams to come true. She wants to be a doctor when she grows up, so she always does her best.

Lisa also helps her friends. If they have a problem with their studies, she happily helps them understand. She shares her books and notes. Everyone likes her because she is kind and helpful. Lisa believes that being good to others is as important as studying hard. She often says, "We can all succeed if we help each other." This makes her a special person in her class and community.

In her free time, Lisa likes to read books. She reads about science and history. She also likes to draw pictures of nature. Lisa finds joy in learning new things. She knows learning is a journey and she loves every step of it. She is a good example of how to be a good student and a good friend. She shows everyone what we can achieve when we try hard and care for others.
