Understanding Instructions

Choose the correct answer from the options given.

1. What are instructions?

A. Questions we ask to get information

B. Guidelines that tell us how to do something

C. Opinions shared with others

D. Stories that explain a topic

2. Why is it important to understand instructions?

A. To speak fluently in public
B. To complete tasks incorrectly
C. To avoid confusion and mistakes
D. To express opinions

3. What can happen if instructions are misunderstood?

A. Tasks are completed faster

B. Communication improves

C. Mistakes and accidents may occur

D. Everything goes smoothly

4. Which is a good strategy to avoid misunderstanding instructions?

A. Ignore details and do it your way

B. Read quickly and guess

C. Ask questions and clarify when unsure

D. Wait for someone else to explain it

5. When you do not understand an instruction, the best thing to do is:

A. Guess what it means and move on

B. Ignore it and do nothing

C. Ask for clarification

D. Change the instruction to something easier

6. How can taking notes help you understand instructions better?

A. You can use them for drawing later

B. They help you remember key steps

C. They make the task longer

D. You can give them to someone else

LIVEWORKSHEETS