

Part 4

PET 02, T8P4

Interviewer:

We have Carrie Lewis on the show today, who has just returned from a four-month holiday in 1. Have you always spent so long travelling?

Carrie:

During the past few years I've tried to do as much travelling as possible. I'm 2. years old, and I know eventually I'll have to start a 3., but for now I want to see as much of the world as I can before I have responsibilities like 4.

Interviewer:

But how do you find the 5. to travel so much?

Carrie:

Well, I don't stay in 6. hotels. I go camping or stay with people I've met on earlier trips. Youth hostels are often 7., though I haven't used one recently. And of course, you can always find 8. while you're travelling.

Interviewer:

Is that easy to do?

Carrie:

It depends. Jobs like 9. are often available, but it's best to arrive early in the year. Some countries offer fruit-picking work on 10. A friend of mine worked in a 11., and I might try that too.

Interviewer:

So where did you go this year?

Carrie:

I started in 12., visited some big cities, then went to 13. to work. I had written to a few places before I left, and one offered me a 14., so I took the train there and found somewhere to stay in 15.

Interviewer:

And did you get the job?

Carrie:

Yes! It was a 16. restaurant. They needed someone who spoke 17. because their kids who usually help weren't there in the 18.

Interviewer:

So that paid for your holiday?

Carrie:

Most of it. I only worked during the 19., so on weekends I visited the 20. I'd catch the boat on Friday evening and return Sunday night ready to work again.
