Grammar in Context

Holly met a talking tree in Fairyland and they are chatting now. Finish their conversation.

Tree : Hi, little girl!

Holly: Wow! You can speak!

Tree : All the plants and animals can speak in Fairyland. You should go and say hello to the elephants. They live near the beach.

Holly: I'd love to do that! ❶ _____ is it from here to the beach?

Tree : It's not far. It's one kilometre.

Holly: ❷ _____ do I get there?

Tree : Walk straight ahead. Go through the woods and you'll see the beach. But be careful! The wolves like to have picnics in the woods!

Holly: Oh! ❸ _____ do they do that?

Tree : ❹ _____ a week.

Holly: ❺ _____ wolves are there?

Tree : There are three wolves. They're dangerous. Perhaps you can get to the beach another way. You can walk along the river.

Holly: ❻ _____ is the river?

Tree : It's two kilometres long.

Holly: ❼ _____ does it take to get to the beach if I walk along the river?

Tree : It ❽ _____ two hours.

Holly: OK. I'll take the longer route then. Thanks, Tree!
