ANTALYA GOLDEN ORANGE FILM FESTIVAL 2018

The Antalya Golden Orange Film Festival is the most important national film festival in Turkey. The event has taken place in the autumn months since 2009. You can see thematic and national non-competition programs, special screenings and open-air parties as well. This year, it is in its 54th edition. The Turkish and global film industry are brought together, and cultural and communicational platforms are established. As a film-friendly city, promoting Antalya internationally is aimed. Antalya is formed as a bridge where cultures meet. Film professionals and film lovers are brought together with a unique experience. Traditional parade and gala screenings are continued. Important names from the film industry are hosted. Films are screened and after each film, a meal is prepared for the audience by 4 different chefs inspired by the film that is screened.
