Reading and Writing

Listen and read. What's Avi's favourite animal?

Wild animals in India

India is a beautiful country with lots of wild animals. Sharks, dolphins and lots of fish live in the Indian Ocean. Tigers, elephants, monkeys and foxes live on land. You can see crocodiles in India, too. In Chennai, people look after crocodiles at a special park. The park has got lizards, snakes, tortoises and lots of crocodiles. I love crocodiles. They're my favourite animal! They live on land and they live in water. Crocodiles can't jump, but they can swim and they can run. They've got long bodies, but they've got short legs. They've got big mouths, too. They eat meat and fish. You can see baby crocodiles at the park in Chennai. They're very small!

Read again. Select True or False.

1. Dolphins live in the Indian Ocean. True / False
2. You can see monkeys in India. True / False
3. Avi doesn't like crocodiles True / False
4. You can see baby crocodiles at the park. True / False

Writing: using but

We use a comma (,) and but to join a positive sentence and a negative sentence.

Example:
Crocodiles can't jump. They can swim. → Crocodiles can't jump, but they can swim.

Rewrite the sentences.

Tortoises eat grass. They don't eat meat.

_____

Monkeys haven't got wings. They have got tails.

_____

Tigers live on land. They don't live in water.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS