Emergency: Road Accident

Yesterday morning, there was a road accident in the city center. A car and a motorcycle hit each other near the traffic light on Jay Street. The accident happened at 8:00 AM during busy time. The car was driving fast and did not stop at the red light. The motorcycle was going through the green light. They hit each other in the middle of the road. The rider of the motorcycle and the car driver were both hurt. Some people close by called for help.

An ambulance arrived quickly and took the hurt people to the hospital. The doctors said they are okay but need rest. The police came to the place to help. They stopped the traffic and talked to people who saw the accident. The police said the car driver made a mistake by not stopping at the red light.

The road was closed for one hour while the police and workers cleaned the area and moved the broken cars and bikes. After that, the road was open again. The police tell all drivers to be careful and follow traffic sign to stop accidents.
