

Seder

Mad Libs Exodus

Every year we celebrate Passover to remember when our ancestors were

_____ and how they _____ to freedom.
 (occupation, plural) (verb ending in ed)

Moses came to the Pharaoh and said, "Let my people verb!" but the Pharaoh refused.

This made G-d _____, so he unleashed _____ plagues to change (adjective) (number)

the Pharaoh's _____. First, he turned all the water into _____.
 (noun) (liquid)

That didn't work. So G-d tried other plagues like _____ storms, and (animal, plural, noun)
 darkness.

_____ plagues later, the Pharaoh still wouldn't let the _____ go.
 (Smaller number) (plural noun)

Then came the _____ plague: one morning all the _____ (adjective) (adjective)

Egyptian children suddenly died. The Pharaoh finally gave up and agreed to

_____ the Jews.
 (verb)