Dear Kenji,

Thanks for your last email and for sending the link to your favorite band, The Script. I'm listening to them right now! I really like the song "Superheroes." I usually listen to music when I do my homework after school. When I finish my homework, I watch my favorite TV show, play video games, or chat online with friends. You said you go to a "cram school" three times a week after school. What's that? Do you do your homework or study for tests when you go there? Once in a while I like to study with friends, but normally I just study alone. Well, I should go now. Time to study for my math test tomorrow! I hope to hear from you soon!

Marcos
