Visiting Paris was a and experience.

I felt so happy to see new with my family.

The Eiffel Tower was and shiny —

I lots of pictures with my family.

We in beautiful parks and yummy croissants every morning.

One day, we fed ducks at a , and

I a lot when one duck tried to nibble

my shoe! At night, the city lights like stars all around us.

I will never this trip,

and I hope we can go back one day.
