The Battle of New Orleans – Part 2

1. The Commander of the U.S. Soldiers during the Battle of New Orleans
   a. Thomas Jefferson
   b. Woodrow Wilson
   c. Andrew Jackson

2. Who won the Battle of New Orleans?
   a. United States of America
   b. France
   c. Great Britain

3. Which side had the most troops, America or the British?
   a. British
   b. America

4. What is Nationalism?
   a. Hatred of non-citizens
   b. Love of the country
   c. Love of animals

5. What did the British Navy do to isolate New Orleans during War of 1812?
   a. They overtook the US troops in the French Quarter
   b. They sabotaged them
   c. They set up a blockade

6. Who was the pirate that assisted American soldiers during the battle of New Orleans?
   a. Jean Lafitte
   b. Andrew Jackson
   c. Christopher Columbus

7. What was an effect of the War of 1812?
   a. Tore the American people apart
   b. Brought all people of Louisiana together as Americans
   c. All Americans believed in the power of God

8. Why were US leaders concerned about French ownership of Louisiana?
   a. It could open up trade opportunities for other states
   b. It could flood the state with foreigners
   c. It could block future US expansion & interfere with trade along the Mississippi River

9. What did the Louisiana Purchase do for Louisiana economically?
   a. Reduced taxes and lowered interest rates
   b. Brought the people together as a unit
   c. Increased the economy and population, US products were shipped around the world, making Louisiana the major trade center for all goods produced in America

10. What date did Louisiana officially became a state? Louisiana became the _____ state of America.
    a. April 1, 1812; 8th state
    b. April 30, 1812; 18th state
    c. April 20, 1812; 20th state

11. How did the New Orleans citizens feel about Andrew Jackson and the military he brought to New Orleans?
    a. They hated him because he brought violence into the city
    b. They called him their savior and were happy to have help
    c. The loved him and felt like he was everyone's "uncle"

12. What did the victory of the Battle of New Orleans mean for the New Orleans?
    a. It would remain part of the United States
    b. It would now be a part of France
    c. New Orleans now became the most popular city around

13. Who was the British commander that fought in the Battle of New Orleans?
    a. Andrew Jackson
    b. Jean Lafitte
    c. General Pakenham