

Name: _____

Score: _____

7 Multiple choice questions

Term

1 of 7

How many Americans?

- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- Hull and 1200 men
- October 13, 1812
- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there

Term

2 of 7

How many British?

- America surrenders and hands over 925 soldiers and loses 1000. Canada loses 100 and Brock dies
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- Hull and 1200 men

Term

3 of 7

Who died and how?

- John Norton saved the day with 80 Mohawk warriors, black Loyalists and militiamen
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- Brock got killed by an American sniper by leading a charge from the front.

Term

4 of 7

Who saved the day?

- John Norton saved the day with 80 Mohawk warriors, black Loyalists and militiamen
- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- Brock got killed by an American sniper by leading a charge from the front.

Term

When did it happen?

- Hull and 1200 men
- October 13, 1812
- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements

Term

6 of 7

Outcome

- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- Hull and 1200 men
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- America surrenders and hands over 925 soldiers and loses 1000. Canada loses 100 and Brock dies

Term

7 of 7

What happened?

- America came up the fishing paths across the Niagara River because they knew there weren't a lot of British men there
- Hull and 1200 men
- John Norton and 80 Mohawks and 920 British reinforcements
- America surrenders and hands over 925 soldiers and loses 1000. Canada loses 100 and Brock dies