College Life

College life in the US is very exciting. College students study hard, learn a lot of things, make new friends, and have a lot of fun.

College Studies
College students in the US study many different subjects like Science, Biology, Physics, Chemistry, Maths or English Literature. College students go to lessons for about five hours a day, five days a week and study or do projects for about three hours or more.

Life on Campus
Living on campus in a dorm is an adventure! It isn't like living at home. College students usually share a room in the dorm with another person. But sometimes they live alone. Most college students have a 'meal plan'. They can eat in the college dining hall for a low price.

Clubs
Many college students join clubs like sports, drama, newspaper and art. The clubs organise events like parties and dances. They also hold events to raise money for charity, collect clothes for the poor and even clean up the environment.

What's for Breakfast?

3e

What's it like to wake up in the morning and see Lynne, a 5-metre tall Rothschild giraffe, staring through your window? It sounds strange, but this is a normal morning at the Giraffe Manor, a hotel in Kenya, Africa.

Every morning before 9 o'clock, the giraffes walk over and put their heads through the open windows to see what's for breakfast. In the wild, giraffes eat leaves and twigs, but here at the hotel they prefer a slice of toast and some orange juice. These playful creatures are like members of the family. Each one has its own name and personality. Lynne is the leader and loves treats from the guests. Arlene likes hugs while Barney is like a typical teenager – even though he's only 3.

The hotel is also a conservation project. The Rothschild giraffe is a rare animal with only a few hundred left in the wild. On the 140-acre estate there are also exotic birds and antelopes.

The owners and the staff do their best to make their guests feel welcome. Giraffe Manor is a place that promises an amazing experience and lots of photographs with its gentle creatures.
